Commissioner Stebbins to Address Central Massachusetts and Worcester County Convention & Visitors Bureau

Massachusetts Gaming Commission Continues Community Outreach via Speakers Bureau and Participation in Statewide Speaking Engagements

WHO: *Massachusetts Gaming Commission Commissioner, Bruce Stebbins; members of the Central Massachusetts and Worcester County Convention & Visitors Bureau; Quinsigamond Community College President, Dr. Gail Carberry

WHAT: Commissioner Stebbins will address members of the Central Massachusetts and Worcester County Convention & Visitors Bureau at their 45th annual meeting. Commissioner Stebbins will update attendees on the latest news from the Massachusetts Gaming Commission and provide a status report on the progress of the licensing process.

Through the establishment of MGC's Speakers Bureau, the Commission is participating in numerous statewide speaking engagements to keep the public informed of the schedule and process, increase community awareness of the roles and responsibilities of the Commission, encourage community involvement and solicit valuable feedback to facilitate an all-inclusive, decision-making process.

WHERE: Worcester Senior Center, 128 Providence Street, Worcester, MA

WHEN: Thursday, December 13, 2012, from 7:00am- 9:00am

INFO: As the Commission strives to ensure that its decision-making and regulatory systems engender the confidence of the public and participants, the MGC Speakers Bureau provides an important face-to-face opportunity to communicate directly and facilitate a dialogue with MGC's vast constituency. In order to create the most efficient process, it is suggested that requestors have a minimum audience of 30 attendees and make the request 30 days in advance. To facilitate a Speakers Bureau request, the speaker request form is easily accessible on MGC's website.
